

Directions to the Diocesan Administration Building 555 Colman Center Drive, Rockford

Close-up. The Diocesan Administration Building is a white, three story contemporary office building located near the intersection of I-90 and Business US 20 on the far east side of Rockford. It is just south of the Clock Tower Resort. The entrance to the property is off Lyford Road, 0.3 mile south of US 20 (East State Street), and is well-marked by a large sign.

Traveling from the East. Take I-90, the Northwest Tollway, to Rockford and get off at the second Rockford exit (Business US 20). After the ramp brings one around towards the Clock Tower, turn left onto East State Street. Proceed on East State for less than one block and turn right onto Lyford Road. The diocesan building will be 0.3 miles away, on the right.

Traveling from the South. Take I-39 towards Rockford and stay in the right lane as it curves toward the east. Watch for a sign that reads “Last exits before tollway.” Exit right onto Harrison Road where the ramp sign reads “To Belvidere”(exit 122A). You will drive only 0.3 miles before coming to Mill Road, a four-way stoplight intersection. Turn left onto Mill Road and drive 2.0 miles. The diocesan building will be on the left.

Traveling from the West. Take Bypass 20 around Rockford. On the far east side of Rockford watch for a sign that reads “Last exits before tollway.” Exit right onto Harrison Road where the ramp sign reads “To Belvidere” (exit 122A). You will drive only 0.3 miles before coming to Mill Road, a four-way stoplight intersection. Turn left onto Mill Road and drive 2.0 miles. The diocesan building will be on the left.
